

Provide Accurate Real-Time Videos
Education And Training Materials for U.S. Army

The Background:

The US Army Command and General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, located at Fort Leavenworth in Kansas, providing international and comprehensive higher military education for the military elite at the United States and around the world.

The Challenge:

Provide teachers and students from all teaching, discussion and study hall in school the most accurate way to watch all the real-time or recorded programs from all around the world. Make full use of the limited time and space, expanding each student's vision and direction of thinking. Enhance the level of military education, increasing the efficiency of military education.

The InfoValue Solutions:

InfoValue BizTV™ is a complete IPTV solution that transfers all the world's television signals into high-definition H.264 format. Through the school's IP network to do real-time broadcasting; also recording with the server to on-demand programs database. So that all teachers and students from more than 90 classrooms, 2000 television and computer screens, accurately and interactively viewing rich and diverse videos. Make the teaching, communication and discussion effective.

InfoValue BizTV™ is based on cutting-edge InfoValue own IPTV platform. Not only let the viewers have high-quality and precise interactive experience, but also allow schools to benefit from the excellent stability of the entire system, management capabilities and scalability. In the future, if necessary, BizTV is for the most efficient function of the size of upgraded or expanded.

The Epilogue:

InfoValue BizTV™ could be used in enterprise, government, schools and more.